Welcome Home Sunday. You know how businesses have a soft opening, then an official opening and ribbon cutting later? Sunday, May 23 is our ribbon cutting—not literally, but you get what I'm saying! May 23 will represent a fresh start for our church family as COVID continues to recede as a concern. We want to challenge you to reach out to folks you haven't seen in a while and encourage them to join us. We'll worship together, study the Bible together, and after more than a year, share a fellowship meal together. Woohoo! It will be catered so you won't have to worry about bringing a dish. Plan to join us for Welcome Home Sunday on May 23 and bring someone with you!

Family Retreat. Several of our families enjoyed fun and fellowship at Camp Ney-a-ti last weekend. Here are some shots of our crew...

Brothers and Sisters,

In April, I preached for three churches in Tennessee: in Jackson, Savannah, and Fayetteville. Also, I preached in Tompkinsville, Kentucky. One of these events (Jackson) was a meeting from Sunday to Wednesday. One was supposed to be a meeting (Kentucky), but because of the virus was a one-day event. The church in Savannah had a Family & Friends Day. There were 21 responses for prayer and 1 baptism. Thanks so much!

Keith Parker
