Teaching Rocket. Mark your calendar for Saturday, January 20! We're hosting a one-day workshop for all current and potential Bible class teachers and anyone who wants to be a better student of the Word!

Heroes. Today, I'm privileged to gather with heroes. The believers who fill the pews here this morning are nothing like the media's depiction of "conservative Christians." They aren't backwards and bigoted. They are kind, generous, and warm-hearted. They quietly care for widows, visiting their homes and driving them to the doctor. They open wide their wallets for the cause of Christ, not letting their left hand know what their right is doing. They serve their community in local government and charitable organizations, working for the welfare of the land. They're not perfect. Sometimes their priorities get out of order, and their fleshly side wins out. But by the grace of God, they're good. They are regular men and women who take following Jesus seriously. They are ordinary heroes of the faith.

Wednesdays This Winter. Two new adult classes will be offered starting this Wednesday at 7 PM. Please sign up for one of these in the lobby. We hope you'll join us! Here are the classes, taught by myself and Howard Kirksey...

Thank You

Brothers and Sisters,

On this week of Thanksgiving, it seems like a good time to express my thanks. Thank you and the church at Winchester for wanting to advance the cause of Christ. Paul said to Timothy, "Do the work of an evangelist" (2 Tim. 4:5). That's what I'm trying to do—to bring good news to our nation and entire world. I'm so grateful to have you as co-workers.

My Love and Appreciation,
Keith Parker
